Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2873

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1- 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (e) as being anticipated by Yamagishi (us 2003 /0025805 A1).

Regarding claim1, Yamagishi discloses (refer to figure 2) a lens apparatus (10) capable of performing serial communication with a camera body (100) comprising: a selection device, which permits or prohibits the serial communication (paragraph 0031, paragraph 0074, and paragraph 0080).

Regarding claim 2, Yamagishi discloses, the serial communication is prohibited by selection device, parallel communication is performed with a camera body (100) (paragraph 0042).

Regarding claim 3, Yamagishi discloses, the serial communication is prohibited by selection device a processing speed of a processing circuit loaded in to lens apparatus is reduced (paragraphs 0031and 0032).

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The closest prior art

Uenaka et al discloses (US 2002/0114625 A1) discloses a camera system having a communication system between a camera body and a photographing lens.
